DRIVER TRAINING SESSIONS

At Trackside Motorsport our goal is to assure you walk away from our Driving Training days knowing and understanding more about a wide range of aspects of karting. During a Training day a client will receive 1 on 1 attention from either Dan or Liam, Go-Pro footage from all of their sessions during the training day and a personal USB stick with all the footage to take home at the end of the day.

Driving training day (including USB stick with footage) - $250.00
Group sessions are also available. (price on application)
